
The Portrait Edition

A DAY, A LIFE, A LOVE.

Céleste & Adrien

01 / Céleste Laurent & Adrien Moreau, on their wedding day.

To our favourite people: welcome. We are so happy to spend this day with you.
The Old Town Hall, Bath. A new chapter, and all of you in it.

OUR LOVE STORY

The way we became us, in words and frames.

02 / Taking the long way, together.

03 / The moments in between.

04 / Hands, rings, a quiet pause.

It began with a borrowed book.

In 2021, a rainy afternoon brought Céleste and Adrien to the same Bath bookshop. A conversation over one book carried on at the café next door. One coffee became two.

Lisbon came next, then a first home. In Cornwall in 2025, Adrien asked the question. Céleste said yes before he finished. Today, the people they love are here for the next chapter.

05 / A little space. A shared direction.

A few helpful things

DURING THE VOWS.

Please put phones away during the vows so everyone can be present. Afterwards, take all the photographs you like.

COATS & QUESTIONS.

Leave coats and bags in the cloakroom, then make yourself at home. Our host Emma is here for any questions.

GETTING HOME.

Coaches leave from the front entrance at 23:30. Find Emma before you head out if you need help choosing your coach.

LOVE, KEPT FOREVER

The photographs, the people, the ordinary magic.

06 / One last frame. So much still to come.

For everyone here

You have made room for us at your tables, cheered us through change, and turned ordinary days into the ones we remember. Today, seeing all those parts of our lives together is a gift in itself. Thank you for the journeys, the encouragement, and for being here as we begin this next chapter.

Take this little paper home as a reminder of the people, conversations and dance-floor moments we shared. We hope you leave with a favourite photograph, a new friend, and a story of your own.

With love, Céleste & Adrien

Through your eyes

A small photo challenge. Catch the moments we might miss.

- 01 A laugh you almost missed
- 02 Two people meeting for the first time
- 03 A little detail you love
- 04 Your favourite dance-floor moment

A few things about us

Céleste

Finishes the book before the next date. Comes ready with plenty of opinions.

Adrien

Arrives early. Brings the records. There is always time for one more song.

Together

Sunday markets, too many mugs, and friends around a table that is always a little too small.
